

Graduate School of Information Science and Technology, The University of Tokyo
Doctoral Student Special Incentives Program (IST-RA)
Applicant Evaluation Form (for Academic Supervisor)

Evaluator:

Department: _____ (if different from regular departments: _____)

Title: _____ Signature: _____ (stamp)

If the applicant is selected as a “support” recipient, I will employ the applicant as an RA and provide 50% of their monthly disbursement with my research expenses.

Yes No (check one)

*In the IST-RA system, there are “priority” recipients (RA disbursements made entirely with budget from the Graduate School) and “support” recipients (half of RA disbursement comes from the Graduate School, and half comes from the academic supervisor).

*If “no” is checked, and an applicant is not selected as a priority recipient, but as a support recipient, they will not be accepted.

Applicant’s Name:

Research Topic (please enter the research topic described on the application form):

Please describe the applicant’s research attitude, perseverance, specialized knowledge and skills, conceptual abilities, creativity, communication abilities, and potential. Additionally, please describe the applicant’s research execution capabilities, your thoughts regarding whether they will become a human resource for future scientific research in Japan, and any other qualities.

Please indicate any particularly distinguishing characteristics of the applicant that may help determine the potential of the applicant as a researcher (examples include excellent academic performance, awards, advanced placements, study abroad experiences, off-campus activities etc.)

NOTES REGARDING THE EVALUATION

- *When filling out this evaluation, please write in either Japanese or English. If hand writing, please be careful to use either black ink or a black ballpoint pen.
